The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://www.uberconference.com/imdump2>. The page has a dark teal header with the text "I want to talk and listen – use:" followed by two buttons: "MY PHONE" (with a telephone handset icon) and "MY COMPUTER" (with a laptop icon). To the right, it says "I don't need audio:" followed by a "VIEW ONLY" button (with an eye icon). Below the header, the main content area is grey and contains the text "Welcome to UberConference" and "Choose how you want to join Mark's conference above." A map of the Washington, DC area is shown, with "Washington" highlighted. Below the map, it says "ORGANIZER" and "Mark Braunstein" with a laptop icon, and "Ole Virginia Hams ARC" below that. At the bottom of the browser window, there are icons for a window, a headset, and a red close button.
